

All Wisconsin Agents may take online and self study continuing education.

The Wisconsin Insurance Commissioners Office state on their website “Self-study, correspondence and on-line courses can be approved if they meet the criteria under s. Ins 28.06 (6), Wis. Adm. Code, and include completion of a certified proctored examination.”

Insurance.com is as easy as 1, 2, 3

Complete the online course.

Most agents find the information to be interesting and practical.

Find a proctor and take the exam provided at the end of the course.

The exam is a multiple-choice proctored quiz. Passing is 70%. A back-up exam is available, if needed, at no charge.

A proctor should be:

- An impartial, disinterested third party, or
- A currently licensed agent

with no family or financial relationship to the student.

The proctor should

- Verify the agent’s identity,
- Observe the agent while taking the exam, and
- Complete the affidavit supplied.

Fax the answer key and affidavit to 800-476-2945.

We will grade your exam and fax your certificate within 48 hours. (If you have not already paid for your credits, that should also be done at this time.)

Then, relax and tell a friend about Online. Spreading the word will allow us to offer more quality courses.
